

The Communicator

for STUDENTS of

The Ohio State University at Lima and Lima Technical College

"OBOES AND IVORIES" ON THURSDAY - "Oboes and Ivories" will spotlight John Bentley, oboist, and Valrie Kantorski, pianist, in a program on Thursday, February 3. They will perform at noon in Reed Hall 160. Bentley has coordinated woodwind instruction at BGSU for the past 21 years. He has performed in the United States, Europe and Canada. He holds degrees from The Peabody Institute of Music, and the Universities of Alabama and Michigan. Ms. Kantorski is the pianist for the Toledo Symphony Orchestra and is a member of the Kantorski-Pope Piano Duo. She is a member of the Creative Arts Faculty at BGSU. Their program will range from J.S. Bach to Scott Joplin. Be sure to hear "Oboes and Ivories" this Thursday.

DEADLINE FOR FINANCIAL AID NEAR - OSU and LTC students are urged to check immediately in the Financial Aid Office for the 1994-95 filing deadlines for the Free Application for Federal Student Aid and for OSU and LTC scholarship applications. Both forms must be completed NOW in order for you to be eligible for scholarships. See Lynette Layman, Ruth Ann Loar or Gary Weaver in the Financial Aid Office, PS 120 for more information.

MARCH AND JUNE LTC GRADUATES...are you part of the Placement Database? If you are not, then your resume is not being sent automatically to interested employers. The time to begin your employment search is NOW. Registration materials and the resume software disk is available at the Career Placement Counter in 148 Public Service. The disk costs $5 and is yours to keep forever! Get the "mechanics" of your employment search completed so you can concentrate on the right employer.

OSU STUDENTS BEGIN TO SCHEDULE - February 2nd marks the opening of BRUTUS windows. OSU students should be receiving packets in the mail. If you need assistance in planning your Spring quarter schedule, make an appointment early with your advisor. Spring schedules are ready to pick up in PS 148. The BRUTUS telephone is located in the Gameroom, GA015.

INTERNATIONAL RECRUITING FAIR - The "World Comes to Ohio" is the theme of the INTERNATIONAL RECRUITING FAIR being held by The Ohio State University College of Education on February 4, 5, and 6 in Columbus. There will be informal discussions between recruiters and candidates about their schools, information about the schools, communities and the countries, and interviews for positions available. If you think you would like to start your teaching career in a foreign country this may be your opportunity! See Mary Beth Kaufman or Reggie Williams in the OSU Advising Office, PS/Adm. 148 for information TODAY.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION NOTES -

CHILDREN'S SERVICES DIRECTOR TO SPEAK - Jackie Loescher, L.S.W., Director of Protective Services at The Allen County Children's Services will address the topic ("Protective Services in Allen County") on February 9 at 10:00 a.m. in Ga.124. The program is open to all interested students ; sponsored by Friends of the Community.

FRIENDS OF THE COMMUNITY SAY "THANKS" - The "Friends of the Community" Club would like to extend a very special "THANK YOU" to everyone who helped support the House Pin Sale that benefited Lima's Samaritan House, the shelter for homeless women and children in the area. They received Christmas presents, hats, coats, gloves and many more much needed items through your generosity.

ORGANIZATION PRESIDENTS TO MEET - A President's Council meeting is planned for this Thursday, February 3 from 3:00-4:30 in GA246. The President's Council is made up of student leaders from each registered student organization on campus. The program will feature a discussion about "members" --- who they are and what they expect from an organization. Each student leader will also have the opportunity to discuss current projects. For more information, contact Carole Enneking in Student Activities, GA066.

OSU STUDENTS NEEDED FOR USG REP - If you will be attending OSU-Columbus next year, you may want to run for the Lima Campus seat on the Undergraduate Student Government. The Lima Campus representative is responsible for being the voice of OSU-Lima students in decision making on the main campus. Applications and petitions are available in the Student Activities Office. Deadline for petitions is Friday, February 4.

Athletics:

BARON BLOWOUT RESULTS -

Congratulations to both Baron Basketball teams for their wins at last Wednesday's Baron Blowout event. The Lady Barons finished with a 65-61 win over the Lady Lakers of Wright State Univ.-Lake. The men blew-away Wright State Lake's men with a score of 118-82. As part of the event, Kent Basham walked away with $25.00 for making a half-court shot during the half-time competition.

LADY BARONS CONTINUE RUN - As of 1/27/94, the Lady Barons had a 16-4 record. Their first conference loss came against OU-Zanesville on Sat. Jan. 23; currently they are 7-1. Don't miss this Wednesday's home game against Miami University-Middletown.

BARONS VIE FOR CONFERENCE TITLE- Don't miss the game against Miami Univ. Middletown on Wednesday. If the men win, they will take over first place in the ORCC conference.

Intramurals:

BASKETBALL GAMES RESCHEDULED-

Snow and a leaky roof have delayed some of the games. Games originally scheduled for Jan. 19 will be played on Feb. 3rd.

VOLLEYBALL AND WIFFLEBALL STILL

OPEN - Both leagues still have room for teams, see Rob Livchak in the Athletics Office (CK105) to sign-up.
